

“The Walls God Tears Down”

Acts 10:1-33

Big Idea:

The gospel has no boundaries, so God calls His people to lay aside prejudice and carry His grace to all people.

1. We all are prone to _____ .
2. God graciously exposes the attitudes that _____ .
3. God’s purpose is to spread the gospel _____ so that He will be glorified.
4. When God confronts our prejudice, _____ .
5. When we humble ourselves, God uses us in _____ .

“The Walls God Tears Down”

Acts 10:1-33

Big Idea:

The gospel has no boundaries, so God calls His people to lay aside prejudice and carry His grace to all people.

1. We all are prone to _____ .
2. God graciously exposes the attitudes that _____ .
3. God’s purpose is to spread the gospel _____ so that He will be glorified.
4. When God confronts our prejudice, _____ .
5. When we humble ourselves, God uses us in _____ .

Questions for the Week

1. What are some common prejudices alive and well in the church?
2. Why are we often anxious around people who are different from us? Why should the gospel shatter these fears?
3. Should every Christian be seeking to reach those who are culturally different or is this just the gift of some?
4. What are some of the culturally different groups in our city that the Lord might want us to reach? What should you do?

Questions for the Week

1. What are some common prejudices alive and well in the church?
2. Why are we often anxious around people who are different from us? Why should the gospel shatter these fears?
3. Should every Christian be seeking to reach those who are culturally different or is this just the gift of some?
4. What are some of the culturally different groups in our city that the Lord might want us to reach? What should you do?