Questions for the Week

1. If unbelievers are truly dead in their sins, is it a waste or mistake to call upon them to repent and believe in Christ? Why/why not?
2. Since Jesus never seemed to use a method of evangelism, should we? Why/why not?
3. In verse 40, Peter sends everyone out of the room before praying. Why might Peter take this step? What does this reveal about dependence on God? How do you prepare yourselves to be faithful to Him?
4. Where do you see God working in quiet but powerful ways in your life or church right now? How might those moments point others toward Christ?
