

“A Holy Wake-Up Call”
Acts 11:1-18

1. God’s plan is to save people _____
_____ for His glory.

2. We all bring wrong thinking into the
_____.

Wrong Thinking:

- Human _____ are more important than salvation.
- The church should consist of “_____” of people.
- God has to do things _____.

3. God changes our wrong thinking so that we can be His _____ in His work.

“A Holy Wake-Up Call”
Acts 11:1-18

1. God’s plan is to save people _____
_____ for His glory.

2. We all bring wrong thinking into the
_____.

Wrong Thinking:

- Human _____ are more important than salvation.
- The church should consist of “_____” of people.
- God has to do things _____.

3. God changes our wrong thinking so that we can be His _____ in His work.

Questions for the Week

1. Missions is not a program in the church; it is the program of the church. What is the difference between the two? How we might be more effective spreading the gospel at Harlem?
2. What are some church traditions that may hinder our outreach to the lost today in West Michigan?
3. In what ways do we sometimes elevate our preferences or traditions above the mission of the gospel?
4. Who is one person or group outside your “comfort zone” that you could begin praying for or reaching out to this week?

Heidelberg Catechism - Lord's Day 46

Q & A 120 Why did Christ command us to call God “our Father”?

A. To awaken in us at the very beginning of our prayer what should be basic to our prayer— a childlike reverence and trust that through Christ God has become our Father, and that just as our parents do not refuse us the things of this life, even less will God our Father refuse to give us what we ask in faith.

Q & A 121 Why the words “in heaven”?

A. These words teach us not to think of God's heavenly majesty as something earthly, and to expect everything needed for body and soul from God's almighty power.

Questions for the Week

1. Missions is not a program in the church; it is the program of the church. What is the difference between the two? How we might be more effective spreading the gospel at Harlem?
2. What are some church traditions that may hinder our outreach to the lost today in West Michigan?
3. In what ways do we sometimes elevate our preferences or traditions above the mission of the gospel?
4. Who is one person or group outside your “comfort zone” that you could begin praying for or reaching out to this week?

Heidelberg Catechism - Lord's Day 46

Q & A 120 Why did Christ command us to call God “our Father”?

A. To awaken in us at the very beginning of our prayer what should be basic to our prayer— a childlike reverence and trust that through Christ God has become our Father, and that just as our parents do not refuse us the things of this life, even less will God our Father refuse to give us what we ask in faith.

Q & A 121 Why the words “in heaven”?

A. These words teach us not to think of God's heavenly majesty as something earthly, and to expect everything needed for body and soul from God's almighty power.