

“Not by Gimmicks, But by Grace”
Acts 11:19-30

The Example of Antioch:

1. God blesses a church where every member is a _____
2. God blesses a church where the _____ is _____ .
3. God blesses a church permeated with His _____ , not _____ .
4. God blesses a church where grace is the _____ .
5. God blesses a church devoted to teaching _____ .

“Not by Gimmicks, But by Grace”
Acts 11:19-30

The Example of Antioch:

1. God blesses a church where every member is a _____
2. God blesses a church where the _____ is _____ .
3. God blesses a church permeated with His _____ , not _____ .
4. God blesses a church where grace is the _____ .
5. God blesses a church devoted to teaching _____ .

Questions for the Week

1. Why (biblically) is evangelism every member's responsibility? What implications does this have for our church?
2. What is the difference between grace and licentiousness? When do we accept an immature Christian and when do we confront?
3. Do I respond to others with grace or with criticism? When I see weakness, immaturity, or someone different from me, do I rejoice in what God is doing in them, or do I focus first on what I dislike?
4. What step can I take this week to remain true to the Lord? Is there a sin to turn from, a habit to strengthen, a relationship to repair, or a spiritual discipline to renew so that I walk more faithfully with Christ?

Heidelberg Catechism - Lord's Day 47

Q & A 122 What does the first petition mean?

A. "Hallowed be your name" means:

Help us to truly know you,
to honor, glorify, and praise you for all your works
and for all that shines forth from them:
your almighty power, wisdom, kindness,
justice, mercy, and truth.

And it means,
Help us to direct all our living—
what we think, say, and do—
so that your name will never be blasphemed because of us
but always honored and praised.

Questions for the Week

1. Why (biblically) is evangelism every member's responsibility? What implications does this have for our church?
2. What is the difference between grace and licentiousness? When do we accept an immature Christian and when do we confront?
3. Do I respond to others with grace or with criticism? When I see weakness, immaturity, or someone different from me, do I rejoice in what God is doing in them, or do I focus first on what I dislike?
4. What step can I take this week to remain true to the Lord? Is there a sin to turn from, a habit to strengthen, a relationship to repair, or a spiritual discipline to renew so that I walk more faithfully with Christ?

Heidelberg Catechism - Lord's Day 47

Q & A 122 What does the first petition mean?

A. "Hallowed be your name" means:

Help us to truly know you,
to honor, glorify, and praise you for all your works
and for all that shines forth from them:
your almighty power, wisdom, kindness,
justice, mercy, and truth.

And it means,
Help us to direct all our living—
what we think, say, and do—
so that your name will never be blasphemed because of us
but always honored and praised.