Questions for the Week

1. The church in Antioch devoted itself to worship, prayer, and fasting before sending out Barnabas and Saul. How should the church seek God's direction and carry out ministry today?
2. Elymas opposed the gospel and attempted to turn Sergius Paulus away from the faith. What are some ways Christians still encounter spiritual opposition or distorted truth today, and how should we respond?
3. Paul boldly confronted falsehood in order to protect the truth of the gospel. How can we speak truth with both conviction and love?
4. The gospel advanced because the Holy Spirit was at work. How might God be calling you to participate more faithfully in His mission?

Heidelberg Catechism - Lord's Day 49

Q & A 124: What does the third petition mean?

A. "Your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven" means:

Help us and all people

to reject our own wills
and to obey your will without any back talk.
Your will alone is good.

Help us one and all to carry out the work we are called to,
as willingly and faithfully as the angels in heaven.
