Questions for the Week

1. Where are you tempted to remain stuck in discouragement, rejection, bitterness, or fear instead of continuing faithfully in obedience to Christ? How does this passage challenge you to “dust off” and keep moving forward?
2. Throughout Acts 13:42-14:7, people responded very differently to the gospel. What does this passage teach us about the human heart and the nature of the gospel? How should it shape the way you respond when others reject biblical truth or the witness of Christ?
3. What opportunities has God given you right now to speak about Christ, encourage another believer, or serve faithfully? What fears or obstacles tend to silence you, and how can you entrust those things to the Lord this week?

Q & A 126 What does the fifth petition mean?

A. “Forgive us our debts,
as we also have forgiven our debtors” means:
Because of Christ's blood,
do not hold against us, poor sinners that we are,
any of the sins we do
or the evil that constantly clings to us.

Forgive us just as we are fully determined,
as evidence of your grace in us,
to forgive our neighbors.
