

“Would you Miss the Spirit?”
Acts 16:1-10

1. The Spirit leads us to the right _____ (16:1-2, 10).
2. The Spirit gives us _____ for ministry (16:3).
3. The Spirit equips us to _____ the church (16:4-5).
4. The Spirit leads us towards _____ to minister to others (16:6-10).
 - a. Opportunities come to those who are _____, not to those who are doing _____.
 - b. God can lead us to the right opportunities by _____ from the wrong ones.
 - c. When God shows us his will, let us be quick _____.
 - d. Sometimes when we obey the _____ does not match the _____.
 - e. The greatest gift we can give others is the _____.

“Would you Miss the Spirit?”
Acts 16:1-10

1. The Spirit leads us to the right _____ (16:1-2, 10).
2. The Spirit gives us _____ for ministry (16:3).
3. The Spirit equips us to _____ the church (16:4-5).
4. The Spirit leads us towards _____ to minister to others (16:6-10).
 - a. Opportunities come to those who are _____, not to those who are doing _____.
 - b. God can lead us to the right opportunities by _____ from the wrong ones.
 - c. When God shows us his will, let us be quick _____.
 - d. Sometimes when we obey the _____ does not match the _____.
 - e. The greatest gift we can give others is the _____.

Questions for the Week

1. If God withdrew His Spirit's active work from your life this week, what would be noticeably different? What does your answer reveal about your daily dependence on Him?
2. Who has God placed in your life to encourage your faith and who might He be calling you to encourage or disciple as Paul did with Timothy?
3. Can you think of an unexpected change in your life that God may have used to redirect you toward something better? How did you respond, and what did you learn about trusting His leading?
4. What opportunities has God already placed before you to serve Him or share the gospel? Are you waiting for a dramatic calling, or are you faithfully serving where He has you today?
5. This week, what is one practical step you can take to move from routine Christianity to intentional dependence on the Holy Spirit? Consider setting aside time each day to pray, "Lord, lead me today, and give me the courage to obey."

"Trust in the LORD with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make straight your paths." - Proverbs 3:5-6 (ESV)

Questions for the Week

1. If God withdrew His Spirit's active work from your life this week, what would be noticeably different? What does your answer reveal about your daily dependence on Him?
2. Who has God placed in your life to encourage your faith and who might He be calling you to encourage or disciple as Paul did with Timothy?
3. Can you think of an unexpected change in your life that God may have used to redirect you toward something better? How did you respond, and what did you learn about trusting His leading?
4. What opportunities has God already placed before you to serve Him or share the gospel? Are you waiting for a dramatic calling, or are you faithfully serving where He has you today?
5. This week, what is one practical step you can take to move from routine Christianity to intentional dependence on the Holy Spirit? Consider setting aside time each day to pray, "Lord, lead me today, and give me the courage to obey."

"Trust in the LORD with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make straight your paths." - Proverbs 3:5-6 (ESV)