

“The Gospel in the Marketplace of Ideas” Acts 17:16-34

How should Christians share the gospel with people who don't share our Christian worldview?

1. _____ to and _____ the people around you.
2. Find points of _____ with their worldview.
3. Challenge the world's _____.
4. Present to them the christian _____ of _____.
5. Move from Conversation to _____!
6. Trust God _____.

“The Gospel in the Marketplace of Ideas” Acts 17:16-34

How should Christians share the gospel with people who don't share our Christian worldview?

1. _____ to and _____ the people around you.
2. Find points of _____ with their worldview.
3. Challenge the world's _____.
4. Present to them the christian _____ of _____.
5. Move from Conversation to _____!
6. Trust God _____.

Questions for the Week

1. Who has God placed in your life who thinks differently than you about God, faith, or Christianity, and how well do you really understand what they believe?
2. What questions, struggles, or interests do the people around you have that could provide a natural opportunity to begin a conversation about the gospel?
3. Are you more likely to avoid difficult conversations about faith, argue with people, or graciously listen and engage them? What would it look like to follow Paul's example more faithfully?
4. Who is one person you could intentionally pray for and look for an opportunity to point toward Jesus this week?

Questions for the Week

1. Who has God placed in your life who thinks differently than you about God, faith, or Christianity, and how well do you really understand what they believe?
2. What questions, struggles, or interests do the people around you have that could provide a natural opportunity to begin a conversation about the gospel?
3. Are you more likely to avoid difficult conversations about faith, argue with people, or graciously listen and engage them? What would it look like to follow Paul's example more faithfully?
4. Who is one person you could intentionally pray for and look for an opportunity to point toward Jesus this week?