

“A Life Worth Living,
A Life Worth Following”
Acts 20:17-38

1. A life worth following is marked by _____
and _____ service.
2. A life worth following is willing to _____
Jesus even when the future is _____ .
3. A life worth following _____
the responsibility of caring for God's people.
4. A life worth following trusts God's grace and is expressed through _____ .

Am I building a life centered on
Jesus Christ?

“A Life Worth Living,
A Life Worth Following”
Acts 20:17-38

1. A life worth following is marked by _____
and _____ service.
2. A life worth following is willing to _____
Jesus even when the future is _____ .
3. A life worth following _____
the responsibility of caring for God's people.
4. A life worth following trusts God's grace and is expressed through _____ .

Am I building a life centered on
Jesus Christ?

Questions for the Week

1. Paul described his ministry as serving the Lord with humility, tears, and perseverance (Acts 20:19). What are some practical ways we can serve Christ faithfully even when our service is difficult, unnoticed, or unappreciated?
2. Paul said that he was willing to continue toward Jerusalem even though he knew suffering was ahead (Acts 20:22-24). How can we trust God and his plan when we do not know what the future holds?
3. Paul told the Ephesian elders to "pay careful attention to yourselves and to all the flock" (Acts 20:28). Why is spiritual self reflection important when we are trying to encourage and care for other people? What danger is it if we are blind to ourselves?
4. Paul encouraged the elders to help the weak and remember Jesus' words, "It is more blessed to give than to receive" (Acts 20:35). What are some ways our families and our church can put this principle into practice in the coming week?

Questions for the Week

1. Paul described his ministry as serving the Lord with humility, tears, and perseverance (Acts 20:19). What are some practical ways we can serve Christ faithfully even when our service is difficult, unnoticed, or unappreciated?
2. Paul said that he was willing to continue toward Jerusalem even though he knew suffering was ahead (Acts 20:22-24). How can we trust God and his plan when we do not know what the future holds?
3. Paul told the Ephesian elders to "pay careful attention to yourselves and to all the flock" (Acts 20:28). Why is spiritual self reflection important when we are trying to encourage and care for other people? What danger is it if we are blind to ourselves?
4. Paul encouraged the elders to help the weak and remember Jesus' words, "It is more blessed to give than to receive" (Acts 20:35). What are some ways our families and our church can put this principle into practice in the coming week?

“A Life Worth Following”
Acts 20:17-38

5. A life worth following is marked by humble and faithful service.
6. A life worth following is willing to obey Christ even when the future is uncertain.
7. A life worth following takes seriously the responsibility of caring for God's people.
8. A life worth following is ultimately entrusted to God's grace and expressed through generosity.

Am I building a life centered on
Jesus Christ?

“What Will Be Different Because You Were Here?”
Acts 20:1-16

1. Paul was committed to _____
and _____ local churches.
2. Paul was committed to _____ _____ in the local churches.
3. Paul was committed to preparing churches for the _____.
4. Paul was committed to seeing local churches
_____.

What is my impact in the world
for Jesus Christ?

Questions for the Week

5. Paul described his ministry as serving the Lord with humility, tears, and perseverance (Acts 20:19). What are some practical ways we can serve Christ faithfully even when our service is difficult, unnoticed, or unappreciated?
6. Paul said that he was willing to continue toward Jerusalem even though he knew suffering was ahead (Acts 20:22-24). How can we trust God and his plan when we do not know what the future holds?
7. Paul told the Ephesian elders to "pay careful attention to yourselves and to all the flock" (Acts 20:28). Why is spiritual self reflection important when we are trying to encourage and care for other people? What danger is it if we are blind to ourselves?
8. Paul encouraged the elders to help the weak and remember Jesus' words, "It is more blessed to give than to receive" (Acts 20:35). What are some ways our families and our church can put this principle into practice in the coming week?

Questions for the Week

5. Paul described his ministry as serving the Lord with humility, tears, and perseverance (Acts 20:19). What are some practical ways we can serve Christ faithfully even when our service is difficult, unnoticed, or unappreciated?
6. Paul said that he was willing to continue toward Jerusalem even though he knew suffering was ahead (Acts 20:22-24). How can we trust God and his plan when we do not know what the future holds?
7. Paul told the Ephesian elders to "pay careful attention to yourselves and to all the flock" (Acts 20:28). Why is spiritual self reflection important when we are trying to encourage and care for other people? What danger is it if we are blind to ourselves?
8. Paul encouraged the elders to help the weak and remember Jesus' words, "It is more blessed to give than to receive" (Acts 20:35). What are some ways our families and our church can put this principle into practice in the coming week?

Questions for the Week

1. Acts 20:1-2 describes Paul encouraging and strengthening believers wherever he went. How are you personally helping to strengthen the people around you in their faith? Who is someone in your church that you could intentionally encourage this week?
2. Paul surrounded himself with people who could serve alongside him and carry on the work of the gospel. What gifts, abilities, or spiritual knowledge has God given you that could be used to serve and build up His church? Is there someone you could encourage or help equip to serve?
3. Acts 20 shows believers from different places traveling and serving together. What are some things that can threaten unity within a local church? What can you personally do to promote greater unity rather than division in our church?
4. As you look at your family, friendships, workplace, neighborhood, and church, what kind of spiritual impact are you currently having? If you continued living and serving Jesus in the same way for the next five or ten years, what impact would you hope your life would have on the people around you?

“What Will Be Different Because You Were Here?” Acts 20:1-16

1. Paul was committed to establishing and strengthening local churches.
2. Paul was committed to training leaders in the local churches.
3. Paul was committed to preparing churches for the mission.
4. Paul was committed to seeing local churches live in unity.

What is my impact in the world
for Jesus Christ?

