

“Getting It Wrong and Moving Forward ”
Acts 21:15-40

1. Even _____ can get it wrong.
2. Our mistakes can _____ and _____.
3. God’s grace is greater than our _____.

Where have you made a decision that you now recognize was wrong or unwise?

Have you considered how that decision affected the people around you?

What is God calling you to do differently today?

“Getting It Wrong and Moving Forward ”
Acts 21:15-40

1. Even _____ can get it wrong.
2. Our mistakes can _____ and _____.
3. God’s grace is greater than our _____.

Where have you made a decision that you now recognize was wrong or unwise?

Have you considered how that decision affected the people around you?

What is God calling you to do differently today?

Questions for the Week

1. Do you agree that Paul erred by going along with this scheme? Why/why not?
2. What is the difference between a mistake and a sin? Where do motives fit in?
3. When have you made a decision under pressure because you wanted to keep the peace or please others? Looking back, how could you have responded more faithfully to God's Word?
4. How have your words or decisions affected others, even when your intentions were good? Is there someone you need to ask for forgiveness or with whom you need to make things right?
5. Is the fear of making mistakes keeping you from serving the Lord or stepping out in faith? How can you trust God's grace and take a faithful next step, knowing that your failures do not thwart his purposes?

Questions for the Week

1. Do you agree that Paul erred by going along with this scheme? Why/why not?
2. What is the difference between a mistake and a sin? Where do motives fit in?
3. When have you made a decision under pressure because you wanted to keep the peace or please others? Looking back, how could you have responded more faithfully to God's Word?
4. How have your words or decisions affected others, even when your intentions were good? Is there someone you need to ask for forgiveness or with whom you need to make things right?
5. Is the fear of making mistakes keeping you from serving the Lord or stepping out in faith? How can you trust God's grace and take a faithful next step, knowing that your failures do not thwart his purposes?