"What Are You Willing to Do to Get Your Way?"
Acts 23:12-35

1. Our _____ can become more _____ than doing what is right.

2. Sin often finds ways to _____ _____.

3. God calls us to _____ what is right, even when it is _____ .

What are you willing to do to get your way?

"What Are You Willing to Do to Get Your Way?"
Acts 23:12-35

1. Our _____ can become more _____ than doing what is right.

2. Sin often finds ways to _____ _____.

3. God calls us to _____ what is right, even when it is _____ .

What are you willing to do to get your way?

Questions for the Week

1. How did the forty men in Acts 23:12–15 allow their desire to get rid of Paul to become more important than obeying God?

2. Why is it so easy to justify our words and actions when we believe we are right or have been treated unfairly? Can you think of how you have done this yourself recently?

3. What are some ways our desire to get our way can create conflict in our families, relationships, or church?

4. How can we follow Jesus' example by choosing humility, forgiveness, and obedience this week rather than winning an argument or getting our way?

Questions for the Week

1. How did the forty men in Acts 23:12–15 allow their desire to get rid of Paul to become more important than obeying God?

2. Why is it so easy to justify our words and actions when we believe we are right or have been treated unfairly? Can you think of how you have done this yourself recently?

3. What are some ways our desire to get our way can create conflict in our families, relationships, or church?

4. How can we follow Jesus' example by choosing humility, forgiveness, and obedience this week rather than winning an argument or getting our way?